PRICE FIVE CENTS.

SAMPLES SENT ANYWHERE.

Wash Suits and Skirts: Extreme Reductions on Every Summer Garment

$30.00 and $25.00 Handsome Tailored Linea Suits to close out

Embroidered Linen $15.00 Embroidered Linen Suits, in white and pink, now

$8.50 Colored Rep Suits, Eton tyles, now $5.00.

Well-Tailored Linen Coat Suits. 36 inches and 24 inches, at $7.50

Fancy Eton and Coat Suits of Cannon Cloth; special, $3.98.

Skirts.

Two dozen White Cannon Cloth Skiris, $1,25 and $1,00 value; special, 89c.

$1.50 White Cannon Cloth Skirts, now $1.00. $2.50 Cannon Cloth Skirts, now

$4.00 Linen Skirts, all new

$5.00 Linen Skirts, now $8.48.

Wash Coats.

45-Inch Cannon Cloth Coat, well tallored; special, $3.08.

Hip-Length Cannon Cloth Coats, in fitted and semi-fitted models, $5.00 values; your choice now, Fancy and Tailored Etons of Cannon Cloth; special, $2.00.

Substantial Savings in the Silk Department

Black Peau de Cygne, 75c quality, reduced to 58c. Black Peau de Cygne, $1.00 quality, reduced to Colored Crepe de Chine, sold for $1.00, now 59c. Black Peau de Soie, reduced from 65c to 49c. Black Peau de Sole, reduced from $1.25 to $1.00. Black Peau de Sole, reduced from 75c to 58c. Black Peau de Soie, reduced from $1.00 to 75c. White Fancy Silks, reduced from 75c to 50c. Fancy Colored Silks, 50c value, now 39c. White Habutai Japanese Wash Silk, 36 inches vide; will continue to sell this value for 50c.

Lawns and Fancy Voiles

Lataska Volles and Fancy Lawns, many different styles, were 10c and 12 1-2c, now 5c yard.

15c Checked Volles and Cotton Silk Effects, in this seasons' newest and prettiest patterns; to close out quick, 81-8c yard.

12 1-2c Fancy Lawns, 1,000 yards, in white and colored grounds, with small figures and arge floral effects, now 7 1-2c.

Belts and Satchels.

Patent Leather Fritzi-Sheff Belts, now 19c. Red, Gray, White and Black Fritzi-Sheff Belts, 25c. Beautiful line of Persian Belts, 50c. White Wash Belts, plain or embroldered, 10c to 50c.

Princess Girdles, in black or white, 50c.

White Kid Belts, with pearl buckles, 50c.

Special Bargains in Men's Fixings

TO-MORROW the men may revel again among some exceptionally strong furnishing items. Here's an ad. of stirring interest to the saving class of men - men who really want to save. To-morrow you will profit considerably if you visit this counter. So come expecting unusual values. They're here in plenty now. Come early!

19c White Handkerchiefs, all

17c Black Lisle Lace Sox; sale 50c Overall Jackets, sizes 36 and 38, now 89c.

50c White Laundered Shirts now

50c quality of Balbriggan Under-25c Boniface Rubber Collars; our price, 20c.

Faultless Night Rober, fancy or 17c White Wash Madras Ties now the willing

Plaited-Bosom Blue Madras Shirts,

Blue Madras Shirts, with cuffs, pocket and cushion neck band, 50c. Linen Collars, all the new summer styles, 12 1-2c.

19c Fancy Shield Bows, large variety, 12 1-2c. Long Narrow Four-in-Hand Ties, all colors, 25c. Windsor Ties, in all colors, 39

Blouses for the Boy

Plenty of style, service and fit. Made of the best woven madras. An ideal Blouse for the summer. Fine White Madras Blouses, with collar, 50c.

Fancy French Madras, with cuffs; Beautiful Fancy Blouses that button on the bias, 50c.

White Madras Blouses, new pat-

50 dozen Boys' Fancy Blouses, all new, pretty patterns, in fine madras, White Unlaundered Plaited Walst for boys; extra value, 50c. White Unlaundered Plaited Waist,

Extra Fine White Plaited Bosom

Fancy Percale Waist, no collar,

MAIL ORDERS FILLED.

Knit Underwear Specials

15c Ladies' Extra Size Gauze Vests, Jersey and Swiss ribbed, now 17c Lisle-Finished Gauze Vests, slightly imperfect, now 121-2c.

10c Jersey Ribbed Vests, tape neck and arms, small sizes, 7c; four, 89c Pink and Blue Gauze Vests, silk tape, all sizes, now 25c. 25c Boys' Shirts, long sleeves, neatly finished seams, now 15c/each.

650 Lace-Trimmed Umbrella Pants, French band, now 50c. 12 1-2c Misses' and Childrens' Tape Neck and Sleeves Gauze Vests,

This Hosiery Section

Has its numerous bargains for to-morrow. We want you to compare prices, for we think these values unprecedented. Special Ladies Black Gauze Liste 19c Hose, 15c

Ladies' Black Gauze Liste Hose, 35c value, 25c pair. Black Dropstitch and Lace Lisle Hose, special value, Black Lace Lisie Hose, in many different designs,

Ladies' Pink, Blue, Hellotrope and Gray Lisle Hose,

Ladies' Plain White Gauze Lisle, also Lace, in many designs, 25c, 85c and 50c pair. 17c White Lace and Plain White Hose, for ladies,

Wash Goods Section.

Many worthy bargains in this department. Prices have been clipped on many items below cost. Beautiful 10c Dress Ginghams, large variety, now 7c yard.

Fine 25c Panama Cloth, many different colors, now 12 1-2c yard. Large line 25c Suitings; this sale. 12 1-2c. One lot 8 1-3c Fancy Lawns, now Sc yard. As dainty a line of Dress Ging-hams as the heart could wish for 12 1-2c yard.

Third Floor Specials. $2.00 Canopys, 90x90, extra

Large assortment Hammocks, 98c to $5.98. Heavy China Mattings, 25c' value, now 20c yard, China Mattings, in plaids and stripes, heavy quality, 25c yard.

Fine Japanese Mattings, carpet designs, all new effects that sold for 25c and 30c yard; sale price

Full line Crex Matting, Rugs, and Druggets from 39c to $7.50. plain or figured.

CABOS IN FAVOR

A Number of Parties Among the Most Interesting Events of the Week.

RAILROAD

MEN GATHER

Annual Gathering of Agents and Representatives of Kanawha and Blue Ridge Dispatch.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) GREENBRIER WHITE SULPHUR GREENBRIER WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, July 28.—White Sulphur was never more charming or the company more delightful. The season promises to be most enjoyable. Both young and old enter into-the gayetles of the Springs. Representative people from Washington, Baltimore, New York, Philadelphia, Boston, Virginia, and Southern cities, including many distinguished foreigners, are visiting, here.

the hotel. The first prize was an Orienthe hotel. The first prize was an Oriental silk shawl, won by Mrs. R. C. Brick-ell, of Huntsville, Ala. Second prize, a dainty pack of cards in a handsome leather case, won by Mr. L. M. Swett, of Washington, D. C. The third prize, a bonbon dish, was won by Mrs. George Brown.

Mrs. Ferdinand Chatard, of Baltimore. wn. s. Ferdinand Chatard, of Baltimore,

A very distinguished ropresentation from Baltimore includes Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Whyte and their attractive daugner. Miss Louise H. Whyte. Mr. Whyte is a lawyer of eminence, whose father, C. Pinkney Whyte has served his State with great distinction as Senator the second term, as Governor, and has been appointed to succeed Senator Gorham.

term, as Governor, and has been appointed to succeed Senator Gorham.

Miss Paul Seeger and her charming daughter, Miss Elsie Seeger, of Baltimore, have recently arrived and will spend the month of August here.

Miss Warren J. Flick, of New York City, takes her place among the distingue and handsome women at White Subbur, this seeson.

ony.

Mr. and Mrs. Rawlin Lowndes, of Charleston, S. C., are especial favorities at the "White." No guest is more university popular than Mrs. Lowndes, and social functions are incomplete without her gracious and elegant presence.

Washington, D. C. The third prize, abonhon dish, was won by Mrx Cocces Brown.

Mrs. Fredinand Chatard, of Baltimore, Mrs. Fredinand Chatard, of Baltimore, and Mrs. Riching Stone, recently arrived from the prety acceptance of the mean and the many and the prety acceptance of the mean and the Under Lewis and Beirne Owner ship, Grand Hotel and Center House Are Erected.

EUCHRE AND DINNER DANCES

Visitors from White and Sal Salt Sulphur and Other Neighboring Resorts.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) OLD SWEET SPRINGS, July 28.—In recent conversation with a gentleman the the old school, whose life has been pent in these mountains, your corre-

Mrs. Clement Clay Clopton, of Huntsville, Ala, is a popular visitor. Her wellknown intellect and powers of entertaining add greatly to the pleasure of those privileged to know her, and she is always the centre of an admiring circle of friends.

Mrs. Ritchle Stone accompanied by her pretty daughter, Miss Lillian Stone, and Master King Stone, recently arrived from Washington.

Miss Stone is one of the most admired girls here for ber exquisite loveliness and many charms.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. McCauley are guests of prominence from Washington.

Recent arrivals include Mrs. Ritchle
Stone, Mrs and Mrs. Behrand, Mr. John K. Graves, Mr. and Mrs. Edward McCauley, Mrs. R. W. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Goldshorough, Mr. George Robinson, and Mr. George F. Appleby, of Washington, O. C.; Mr. Ed. Mahoney, Miss

Ington visited the family upon several occasions.
About the same time a substantial log building was erected on the knoll south building was erected on the sued as a summer botel. This became known far and wide, and grew in popularity, requiring the addition of several cottages. Here stately dames and courtly squires were wont to assemble in the summer-time, traveling in their own coaches, accompanied by their families and retinue of servants.

BULLT GRAND HOTEL.

About 1830 Mr. Ben. Lewis, grandson of the original settler, became sole owner of the property, and, wishing to make it more worthy of its aristocratic patronstructure known as the Grand Hotel, which is said to contain quite a million bricks. This was indeed an immense improvement to the place, but, alas for poor Ben., it proved his undoing, and forced him to part with the estate in 1833.

party, including Mr. and Mrs. Vance, Miss Vance and Messrs. Isaac Davenport and Jim Sterrett, drove from the Old Sweet to, "Camp Hurry," where they were tendered a delicious dinner, constiting 9, all the good thungs one generally associates with such an occasion. Later they were joined by Messrs. Moorg and Hall, and all adjourned to Roxalia Springs and took part in a genuine country dance.

and Hall, and all adjourned to Roxalla Springs and took part in a genuine country dance.

PROGRESSIVE EUCHRE.

On Tuesday evening many of the card players joined in a game of progressive euchre. The large partor was beautifully decorated with rhododendron and all kinds of wild flowers, and a merry party enjoyed the game. Mr. Dan Talley came out ahead, securing a handsome book as first prize. Mrs. T. M. Rutherfoord, Miss Delia Davenport and Colonel Andrew cut for the serond prize, a box of Huyler's candy, which fell to the lot of Miss Davenport. The booky, a large bunch of beets, was carried on by Mrs. Davis, who tied with Mrs. Blunt.

After the game, punch and cakes were served. Others playing were Mrs. Talley, Madame and Miss Guillaume, Miss Ella Moncure, Mesdames Hall, Edle, Block, Berry, Andrews, Weed, Pritchard, Hobson, Mrs. and Miss Reichman, Miss Rutherfoord, Miss Donnally, and Mrs. Sterrett. Mrs. Gwendolyn Rutherfoord purched.

During the week several parties from Miss Talley are in the cottage they have occupied for so many seasons; Mrs. James H. Scott, with her little son and daughter, are also among the cottagers, and Mr. Isaac Davenport is spending his vacation with his parents.

Others registered during the week are Mrs. M. H. Hobson, Miss Van Lyne, Messrs, D. J., C. M., and C. O. Shanahan, Mrs. M. H. Hobson, Miss Van Lyne, Messrs, D. J., C. M., and C. O. Shanahan, Irom Louisville, Ky.; Mrs. William E. Hebden and Mr. J. C. Hebden, White Sulphur; Mrs. Guy L. Edle, two children Esulphur; Mrs. Guy L. Edle, two children Esulphur; Mrs. Rodgers; H. S. Zimmerman, Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Whyte, Mrs. James Whyte, of Baltimore; S. Q. Wilson, of St. Louis; C. G. Gordon, of Savanhah, Ga; the Misses Bell, of New York city; J. M. Wright and wife, of Wellsnah. Ga.; the Misses Bell, of New York city; J. M. Wright and wife, of Wellston, O.; Mrs. A. H. Pattengill, Miss Pattengill, J. G. Pattingill, of Salt Sulphur; C. L. Dunn, of Red Sulphur; E. L. Dunn, of Barge's Sulphur; John M. Anderson, A. A. Retz and R. R. Middleswort, of Bluefield; Joseph B. Kite and John Allen, af Parkersburg; J. J. Edmunds, of Kentucky; M. G. Roche, of Clifton Forge; Charles E. Cox and J. R. Stewery, of Lewisburg; M. A. Donnally, of Lynchburg, and W. G. Arthur, of Gap Mills, W. Va.

Attractive to Guests at Intermon Hotel, Covington-Ball-Room and Card Tables.

GAY PARTY TO HOT SPRINGS

Richmond Visitors Betake Themselves to Mountain Streams in Search of Trout.

son, Mrs. and Miss Reichman, Miss Rutherfoord, Miss Dennally, and Mrs. Sterrett, Mrs. Gwendolyn Rutherfoord punched.

During the week several parties from the White Sulphur, the Salt Sulphur and other mountain resorts spent the day at the Old Sweet. Bishop P. J. Donahue, of Wheeling, was also here for a few days, and celebrated mass in the village church.

The RICHMOND LIST.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

HOTEL INTERMONT, COVINGTON, VA.. July 28.—Ench night shortly after the arrival of "No. 5," the lobby of the hotel presents a lively appearance, permanent guests greeting newly-arrived friends, and the traveling men, of whom there is always a large contingent looking around for "Minor" and "Ben," the efficient porters, anxious to be shown to the comfortable rooms always, reserved for this part of our commenced.

eered by Mr. Julian Bryant, will spend the day in the mountain fastnesses, where the streams are said to abound in shoals of the finny tribe.

The pleasant circle here has received many charming additions during the past week. Prominent among these may be mentioned Dr. and Mrs. Inglehart, of Baltimore; Mrs. Richard Poole, Miss Poole, Miss Frances Poole and Mrs. Jones, of Washington; Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Phillips, of Richmond; Mr. Edward Lamb and family, of Norfolk are expected early in August. in August.

The register shows the following guests af Parkersburg; J. J. Edmunds, of Kentucky; M. G. Roche, of Clifton Forge; Ve Charles E. Cox and J. R. Stewery, of Lewisburg; M. A. Donnally, of Lynchburg, and W. G. Arthur, of Gap Mills, burg, and Mrs. Covington; Mr. G. F. Rodgers and mother, Covington; Mr. G. F. Rodgers and mother, Covington; Mr. G. F. Rodgers, Covington; Mr. D. A. Williamson, Covington; Mr. W. V. Kellogg, Richmond; Mrs. J. E. Wright, Covington; Mr. H. P. Taylor, Richmond, Mr. M. Miss Poole, Mashing, Mr. B. H. H. T. Taylor, Mrs. Margaret Williamson, of Washing, Mr. M. Miss Poole, Mr. B. A. B. W. V. Washing, Mr. B. Davidle, Step the guests of Mr. Pahlimson, A. Washing, Mr. B. Davidle, Step the guests of Mr. Pahlimson, Mr. B. A. B. W. Washing, Mr. B. Davidle, Step the guests of Mr. Pahlimson, Mr. B. A. B. W. W. W. W. K. Kellogg, Richmond, Mr. and Mrs. Davidle Alexandria, Miss C. L. Taylor, Mr. Pahlimson

Springs; Mr. B. E. Seaton, Nortolk, Va. Mr. and Mrs. Keller and daughter, Win-chester, Va.; Rev. W. N. Rodgers, Cov-ington; Miss Maud Hyde, Covington.

Belona Personals.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

BELONA, VA., July 23.—Miss Elizabeth Jolinson, of Amelia county, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Spence Hobson, of this place.

Miss Jane Newton, of Westmoreland county, who has been the guest of kilss Birdye Haugh, left yesterday for Richmond, en route to Washington, D. C., Fauquier county and the Hot Springs.

Mr. John Hobson, who attended the house party of Miss Rose Satterfield, who was drowned in James River, is new at his home, at Mount Airy, again, Mrs. Mary Michaux is visiting in the neighborhood.

Mr. Tess Hobson, of Richmond, spent Sunday at Mount Airy with his parents. Rev. Mr. Siler, of this place, is visiting at Clayville.

Mrs. W. G. Porter, who has been in Richmond with her little niece, Who is very ill, returned home a few days ago. Miss Constance Tritton, of The Mill, who has been visiting in Richmond, returned a few days ago.

RICHMONDERS GO

Hibernians Enjoy Outing at the Beach-Medals Will Be Given Best Dancers.

BUCKROE BEACH, VA., July 28.—The people of Richmond have made Buckroe Beach their headquarters during the past week Scarcely has there been a day but what a half dozen or more of the Capital City folks have come to this re-

Among those who arrived during the past two days are Mrs. D. O'Dwyer, Miss Cella Bowen, Mr. Dennie O'Dwyer, Mr. Dennie O'Dwyer, Mr. C. D. Weymack, Mrs. Dennie O'Dwyer, Mrs. Cella Powell, Mrs. Jenkins, Mrs. Cox, Mrs. David Hudson, Mr. Benjamin Brothers, Mr. R. B. Richardson, Mr. Frank Miller, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. West, Mr. J. Lilli Mr. William Workman. Frank Miller, Mr. and arts. J. C. Wess,
Mr. J. L. Hill, Mr. William Workman,
Mr. W. B. Valden, Mr. P. L. Moore,
Miss Grayoe Carlyle, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Butler, Mrs. Rose Hudson, and Miss Estelle Hudson.
HIEERNIANS OUTING.
Saveral hundred members of the An-crowd that desired to visit ins popular beach. The management engaged a special orchestra to play for the dancers in the atternoon, and all enjoyed themselves to the full limit. There were no unfortunate incidents to mar the pleasure of the day, and the big company remained at the beach until 7:30, when they left for their homes in Richmond mend.

MEDAI, FOR DANCING.

The management of Buckroe Beach will present two handspine gold medals to the two best dancers Saturday night. All during the week an expert hase been watching the giddy whirlers and plcking out those competent to enter in the contest for the prizes.

Much interest is being manifested in the contest, and dancers from Newport News, Hampton and Old Point have been flocking to Buckroe svery night to get in the game.

Taylor,
e, Washshington,
ond, Mr.
and Mrs.
Dr. and
i. hrs.
L. HuffMrs. W.
Brags,
Erags,
E. Bot

The May Hillman Stock Company completed its engagement here last night with a production of "Jesse James." Beginning to-morrow night, high class yaudeville will be the feature.

Bowling, Card Parties and Other Diversions Being Enjoyed by All.

SUMMER GIRL EVER PRESENT

Cares of the Busy Outside World Are Put Aside for Rest and Recreation.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) VA., July 28.-In spite of the low state mometer's vaciliating opinion, there has been no varying from the high point reached here early in the month in the social atmosphere and, which, from the signs that the weatherwise know, will be regarded, when the season is over, as having been the "mean temperature" of he regarded, the "mean temperature" of the life here during the summer of 1995. There are no extremes in the pleasurable days, but a steady, wholesome, normal condition of enjoying life in the wall condition and one chooses for himself.

which each one chooses for nimesir. The personnel is not only geographically cosmopolitan, but also is another proof of "as many men, so many minds." In looking around one sees the various types; the brain-jagged journalist railylooking around one sees the vertous types; the brain-jagged journalist railying from the demand upon his "grey matter"; the tired business man trying to regain his quondam sprightly step after she tread mill march of many months; the frenzied financier "finessing" only in bridge and bowling over only with balls; the legal light, his professional brilliancy turned low for economical reasons, and that other attractive masculine type, who since Chaucer's time has been in evidence in every "Merrie Companye of Sundry folk," and who, although unlike Chaucer's "Squirs," is not characterized by "hair laid as in a press," shows the same speciacular effort in his fancy walst-coats and the "newest things in ties," while in raptures and roundelays is as good as "lovere" any day. The Eternal Feminine is also here in all the glory of her infinite variety, the athlete, the squestrienne, the gentle "Keeper of the Keys," enjoying a rest as rare as necessary, while in and out throughout the whole filts the summer girl, pleasure-loving and pleasure-giving, dainty and lovely and sweet. Only one type is conspicuous by his absence, the chronic whole filts the summer girl, pleasureloving and pleasure-giving, dainty and lovely and sweet. Only one type is conspicuous by his absence, the chronic ficker, whose existence in these elements would be against the laws of nature and hence is an impossibility.

A very delightful bowling party was given on Friday by Mr. James V. Trehy, of Norfolk, Va., as a compliment to the Misses Sims, of Lawrenceville, and was thoroughly enjoyed by those who had the privilege of the hospitality of the genial host. The first prize, an exutilite centerplece and a leather bill book, fell respectively, to Miss Frances Sims and Mr. Robert Johnstone, of Norfolk, while an "au revoir" prize of a handsome box of candy was gracefully presented to Miss Ida Sims, the other guest of honor. Besides these fortunata ones, the others invited were Mrs. Rusa, sell, Kelley, of Norfolk; Mrs. W. C.
Foley, of Newport News, Mrs. Whitaker, of the Mecklenburg; Miss Britt, ef Oxford, N. E. Miss Unitely, of Newport
News, Miss Chaplin, of Rock Hill, S.
C.; Miss Duncan, of Chatham Miss Simmons, of Goldsboro, and Messra. Hobbs, of New York city; Orgain, of Diawiddis Hysson, of Baitimore; Siser, of Zishof New York city; Orgain, of Dinwiddle Hynson, of Baltimore; Biser, of Rich